We Respectfully Dedicate • • •

IN attempting a word description of our Dean of Women, we fully appreciate the limitations of any language vocabulary. Mrs Murrell symbolizes to us, her V. I. family, all the endearing qualities we attribute to our own mothers. We who know and love her—for knowing her is loving her—are conscious of the part she plays in creating the home atmosphere on our campus.

With our interests foremost in her heart, she has undertaken and accomplished the huge task set for her in such a way that year after year she has established personal contact between herself and her ever changing student body. She is understanding enough to be tolerant of our faults and shortcomings; sincere enough to set and accept only the highest moral, mental, and spiritual standards; young enough to laugh and be merry with us and to rejoice when we rejoice in our small successes and achievements; old enough to judge wisely our deeds and misdeeds; far enough away to gain perception of our capacities and the relative cause and effect of our actions; and near enough to anticipate our needs before we ourselves are aware of them.

Therefore, by dedication of this annual to Mrs. Murrell, the Senior Class is expressing formally to her all the appreciation and gratitude that we have felt in our short but vital association with her.

MRS. DORA HALL MURRELL

Dean of Women

To You, The Students . . .

● We of the staff offer the 1940 INTERMONT as a memoir of your college days at Virginia Intermont, hoping that these pages will serve as a present record and future reminder of your interludes of fun and study on V. I. Campus.

Our President • • •

• A brilliant thinker and a sagacious guide—this is our President, Dr. H. G. Noffsinger.

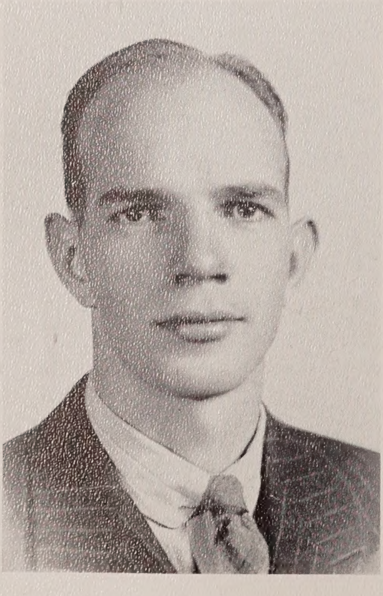
ADMINISTRATION

MR. BROWN

● He is a true friend, ready at all times to give unselfishly of his time, his strength, and his counsel. We marvel at his energy, for, besides efficiently executing his position as Vice-President and head of the Speech Department, Mr. Brown is a leader in church work, in the wild-life conservation, and in Southern forensic activities.

MISS PFLUG

● Our Dean of the Faculty has that quiet charm, that frank, and yet modest, manner, that broad background of intelligence and culture—all of which we greatly admire. She enjoys outdoor life at the Ranch Camp, excels as an equestrienne—favors "Tip"—and is an expert linguist.



MR. NOFFSINGER, Jr.

● His is a well-rounded personality. He is modern, progressive, and alert as our Business Manager; sincere, interesting, and loyal as our friend. Vitally interested in the welfare of Virginia Intermont, he intelligently strives for perfection in our college. His interests vary from horses, tennis, and airplanes to photography, travel, and Economics.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Any student government association has at the outset a real task with which to cope. Such an organization must honestly attempt to represent its Student Body by accurately embodying the principles and standards plus the respect, cooperation, and consciously-felt need for such an organization in that Student Body. Such an organization is not effective unless it is expressive of student desires. We feel so very proud of our Student Government because we know that they have not only met the necessary requirements but have gone several steps further. They have appreciated the limitations of rules, have been generous and friendly in their governing, and have fully awakened us to the realization that the governing association is of, by, and especially, for the students—that it does not limit privileges, but extends them, is not overbearing, but protective, and does not undermine campus activity, but upholds it. A salute to our President, Billie Jane Smartt, and to her Board of Directors.

THE INTERMONT

In presenting The Intermont, the staff realizes that this annual will carry the same basic significance to every Intermont student—a tangible object that she may grasp and hold onto in future years—an object which will help her relive her college days on the campus of her beloved Intermont.

The annual also has a special significance to each Intermonter, for each girl will interpret its pages according to her own experience—her own imaginative pictures, some of which will fade away with time; others which the years will make even more vivid to her mind's eye. The Intermont is—in reality—then—a plural thing and a living thing with as many different personalities and with as many different lives as it has owners.

THE CAULDRON

Flash!—News of the week—featured by "Cauldron" news staff, assisted by the journalism classes. Who knows—some day one of these aspiring young journalists may outdo today's Walter Winchell or Emily Post. At any rate, Intermonters may always have a newspaper reminder of their college days, and we doubt that many of the regular contributors to the paper will need reminders of the news' "dead-line".

PHI THETA KAPPA

Phi Theta Kappa, the national honorary society for Junior Colleges, was founded in 1910. The Nu Chapter of Virginia Intermont was chartered in 1927. The purpose of the society is not only to promote outstanding scholarship, but also to develop character and to cultivate fellowship among the students of both sexes of the junior colleges of the United States. To be eligible for entrance, one must have 14 hours of Literary work and a minimum grade average of 90. Such a high standard as this organization requires is a true incentive and a means of recognition for excellent scholastic work.

Y. W. C. A.

"I am come that they might have life and have it more abundantly." This purpose is carried through all Y. W. C. A. activities.

The organization sponsors social work, including Santa Claus for needy children, clothes for the poor, and visits to the Janie Hammitt Memorial Home.

On the entertainment program are the "get acquainted party", the Hallowe'en party, and the teas before Christmas and during exam-week. Most interesting of these annual social functions is Peanut-Week immediately following exams. Interest groups of Art, Drama, and Personality are held weekly.

Bi-monthly meetings are held in the chapel, many of which are traditional to Intermont, such as the first meeting of "Everybody's Lonesome", the White Christmas Service, and the King College and Emory and Henry College programs.

B. S. U.

The Baptist Student Union has become an indispensable "middle-man" for all other religious organizations on the campus. In the attractive B. S. U. room, representatives from various organizations meet to plan and discuss coming religious programs and to offer suggestions toward greater religious spirit and religious activity in the school. Besides sponsoring three big programs of its own each year, plus representatives at the B. S. U. convention in Richmond, the B.S.U. cooperates in the extensive programs of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. W. A., Day Student groups, and in the Sunday School and Church. Because its services are unique, and because it fills a definitely felt need, in three years the B. S. U. has gained an undisputed place among the leading campus organizations.

DEBATE SQAUD

Our Debate Squad has once again maintained the reputation for a high quality of work that Intermont squads have set for themselves for many years past.

This year's national debate query was "Resolved: that the United States should adopt a policy of strict economic and military isolation toward all nations outside the Western Hemisphere engaged in civil or international conflict." Throughout the year the squad has participated in debating this question in many practice meets with surrounding colleges, in the Smoky Mountain Tournament held in Bristol, and in the Strawberry Leaf Tournament at Winthrop College, Rock Hill, South Carolina. The climax of the hard work and many triumphs of the squad was reached at the National Forensic Tournament, Ogden, Utah, where five of six possible trophies were captured by the Intermont squad. The two Intermont teams composed of Reba June Long - - Georgia Bayless and Shirley Kilgore - - Betty Pullen won first and second places in debate; Georgia Bayless captured the first place award and Betty Swidensky placed second in original oratory; and Reba June Long was awarded first place in extemporaneous speaking.

Georgia Bayless and Reba June Long gave ample proof that a sense of humor is a requisite in any good debate when they hilariously defended the affirmative of the question "Resolved: that a tax should be placed on Bachelors for the Support of the Old Maids" presented as part of this year's Sadie Hawkins Day Celebration.

PHI RHO PI

An active and prominent fraternity, the Virginia Alpha Chapter of Virginia Intermont, is a representative chapter of the National Forensic Society for junior colleges.

The fine reputation that Intermont debaters have throughout forensic organizations may be attributed to the untiring effort of Mr. Roy C. Brown, head of the speech department. Because of his own ability and his confidence in his girls' ability, an unusually long record of honors has been established—both national and local.

CURRY CLUB

This club, organized twenty-four years ago, was named for Dr. Curry, late founder of the Curry School of Expression in Boston. Many an enjoyable afternoon has been spent at the semi-monthly meetings in the Little Theatre where students of the Dramatic and Platform Arts Department present varied programs. We feel sure that in the future we may say of a favored few of these youthful actresses—"We knew her when—."

RULES AND REGULATION COMMITTEE

Never before has the student body been given as many privileges and considerations. We feel sure that much of the revision may be credited to the combined student and faculty committee, which has made the second year of this committee's existence one which will go down in the history of our college as a basic step in the direction of progressive understanding and confidence between the once seemingly divided forces. In realization of that trust our faculty has placed in us, we have endeavored, and now challenge the future students, to uphold that trust in the most fitting ways in accordance with the traditions of Virginia Intermont.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

This choice social committee elected by the student body collaborates with our Dean in the decision of the red letter dates marked on our social calendar. Such a committee is a link between the actual social events and the students' enjoyment of these events. The student credit for this year's full social calendar may be given to its members who were elected by their respective classes.

Membership in Phi Beta is open to the most outstanding students in music, dancing, and dramatics. Intermont is honored in being the second junior college in the United States to have a chapter of this national senior college fraternity.

ART CLUB

Whenever one sees an Intermont lass intently studying the little statue and fish pond by Administration, one can rest assured that she is either day-dreaming or forming artistic images for a future painting or sculpture. Many young artists abide on our campus, and we are proud of them and the fine work they are accomplishing.

ORCHESTRA

Our campus organization most "instrumental" in making music is the V. I. Orchestra, directed by Miss Claire Ordway and featuring twenty-two members of the Intermont Music Department. This year's orchestra has given programs to the student body of V. I. and other schools and has played on numerous occasions for the public. The V. I. Orchestra has contributed much to the school, to the public, and to the music education of Intermont students.

GLEE CLUB

Life's painting would be colorless without a song's magic touch. V. I.'s song life is under the leadership of one of our largest and most active organizations, the Glee Club, directed by Mrs. Schroetter. The successful presentation of the operetta, "Iolanthe", is the outstanding fete of the club's year.

DAY STUDENTS CLUB

Here at college, day students and boarding students are one student body—not only academically but socially. Both study and play together. To know a day student is to know the purpose of her club—"To create a spirit of cooperation and better relationship between the day and boarding students." May we add—southern hospitality is the keynote to the popularity of our day students. Their activities include the Parrish-Vance Society, Tobacco Festival representation of Miss Intermont, and Peanut Week.

PAN-AMERICAN CLUB

South American countries are unusually well represented on the campus. We don't understand the home language of these lassies but we do understand their spirit of friendliness expressed by their laughing faces, and we do admire their fluent speaking of Spanish. The club studies the customs of Latin countries—and, in opening the membership door to all students, gives American girls a chance to know first hand these Spanish speaking countries.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Who said we can't combine business with pleasure?—or—perhaps V. I.'s Home Economics Club under the guidance of Miss Dora Miller is the exception to the rule. But, why quibble? We only know that these girls have been successful in combining educational, social, and business interests. They are our best cooks—they keep things "burning"; their wardrobes are clever, in fact, they keep us in "stitches"; and they're such a help to us—we never could thread a needle—what more could any roommate ask?

SWIMMING COUNCIL

Be it in a row boat, yacht, or ocean liner, fullest enjoyment is felt by those who swim the best—for one never knows—does one? And so, for the first time, a number of water nymphs have formed a swimming club, and with the help of Miss Lucas, Jean Barber, and Captain Bobbie Parrott, they have managed successfully to mix work and play.

Energetic Intermonters have formed the Outing Club for hiking, skating, and other activities for lending relief from the pressure of an ultra-intellectual student existence.

BOOTS AND SADDLE CLUB

Riding has saddled up such spontaneous interest at V. I. that the Boots and Saddle Club, originated through the foresight of Mr. Noffsinger, Jr. and Riding Master, Mr. Whitlow, has successfully hurdled the sparks of interest into one camera-finish flame of activity. Miss Pflug, with "Tip", and Mr. Noffsinger, Jr., with "Best Man", are honorary members. Every rider is working toward, and every onlooker is eagerly anticipating, the climactic event of the equestrienne's year—the annual Intermont Horse Show.

We Hail From the North, South, East, and West!

OUR Virginia Intermont is one community which has successfully brought together the North, the South, the East, and the West into one united campus truly representative of the Americas. Within, one finds life-long friendships made between girls who, because of their widely separated homes, normally would not have come into contact with each other. It is gratifying indeed to find the fruits of such friendships ripening into a new tolerance, an understanding of the thoughts, prejudices, and feelings of other nationalities and religions, and a broadening of one's own small world into a truer conception of the magnanimity of other equally important worlds about us. Thus, we find our education being extended from the realm of books into the realm of society as represented on our campus.

Nevertheless, it is natural and right that each student instinctively identifies herself with her home group. Thus, we find that a predominant characteristic of V. I.'s social life is the formation of numerous state and South American clubs. The strengthening of home ties—loyalty and oneness—in turn strengthening the spirit of cooperation, cheerfulness, and loyalty toward the various other campus activities. We realize that the stronger the links between campus and home life—the stronger the chain of campus activities.

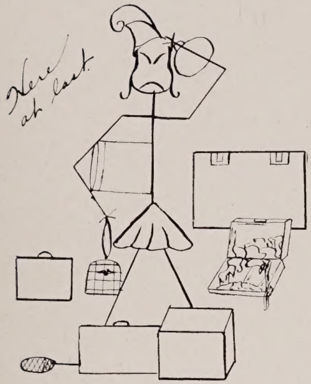
Excerpts from My Diary



Here at last.

September 12. I'm sorry I haven't got red ink to write "My Red Letter Day" up with. I'm here! At V. I. Haven't had a chance to be homesick yet. Here's hoping my first impression—which is PLENTY good!—sticks.

September 16. Tonight the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., B. S. U. gave us a Welcome Party in the gym. I found FIVE people who know somebody who know somebody I know! Had fun—and am certainly getting acquainted with people.

September 17. Today was far from "Gloomy Sunday". After being welcomed at the Baptist Church this morning by Dr. Hicks, the school pastor, we felt more than ever a part of V. I. This afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Noffsinger and Mr. and Mrs. Noffsinger, Jr., had Open House, so I put on my best "bib and tucker", trucked on over, and "ate, drank (tea), and was merry" all afternoon.

September 18. Talk about talented! Our faculty is strictly "on the ball". Tonight Mr. Schroetter gave an organ recital that inspired me to write a ten-page letter home in poetic language.

October 5. Our fall outing at Natural Tunnel certainly "hit the spot". In fact, we've all decided to become life-time members of the Kiwanis Club.

October 6. More faculty talent! I wish Miss Ordway could give a violin recital EVERY week.

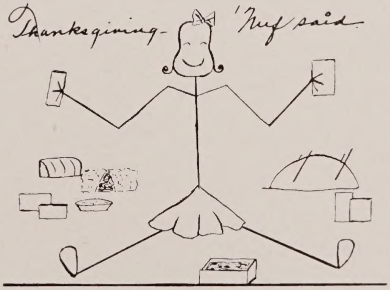
October 14. Fall formal! Bob Sylvester's orchestra!! Men!!!

October 16. First Lyceum Program. It was worth getting dressed in evening clothes to hear—and SEE—Simon Barer's technique—and I DO mean on a piano.

October 28. Games, Singing, Suckers (the kind you eat), Fun—Y. W. C. A. Hallowe'en Party!

November 4. "Day Students' Night". We all went to bed at 11:00 (?).

November 11. Inspiring Armistice Day Program given by the Dramatic Department.



November 13. Oxford Debaters debated here. They were grand—"rawther"!

November 18. "Goll-y ding!" Had a Square Dance tonight, and "ain't had so much fun fer quite a spell!"

November 25. If I ever had any acting aspirations, they're gone now. Jeanne Welty in "Catherine de Medici"—our second Lyceum Program—was superb.

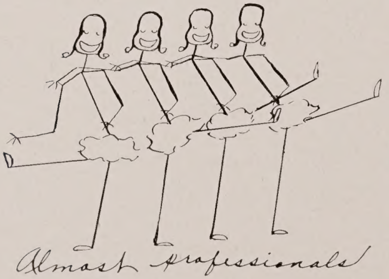
December 2. Take a beautifully decorated gym, Cliff Strickland's Orchestra, plenty of "stags", mix them all together, and you have the perfect Christmas Formal!

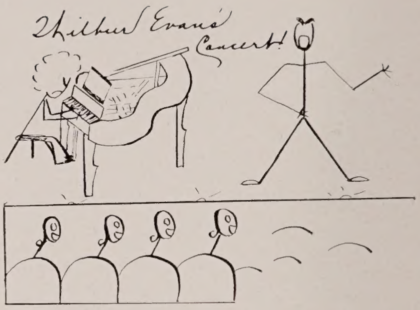
December 7. "It is more blessed to give than to receive" was proved to me today. I really enjoyed the Y. W. C. A. Christmas tree for the underprivileged children.

December 8. I don't really have "dish-pan" hands. They're still red from applauding Lotte Lehmann and Lauritz Melchior in our Lyceum Program.

December 9. "The Goose Hangs High" made me feel like a heel for not writing home today. Strictly a good Christmas Play.

December 13. Saw "Iolanthe", given by the Voice Department tonight. Definitely a "four bell" operetta!





Wilbur Evans' Concert!

December 15. Christmas Holidays 'til January 4!

January 8. I never appreciated violin music enough—but now I know! Robert Vironai appeared on our Lyceum Program tonight.

January 18. Sometimes I wonder, but then again I just say—well! Helen Kirkpatrick talked to us tonight on "Who Will Rule Europe?".

January 22. Midterm Exams!!?? Only bright spots of this next week seem to be the Y. W. C. A. teas every afternoon.

January 30. Miss Winder made me forget even my approaching Spanish test in her beautiful voice recital.

February 3. Colonial Ball—Tara, roses, Twelve Oaks, and two or three hundred "Scarletts".

February 10. "Peanut Week" ends. Gained five pounds, thanks to a wonderful "Shell".

February 12. Wilbur Evans sang tonight in a Lyceum Program. Sat on the "Amen" row. Would have to refer to the Hollywood Dictionary of extra-special words to describe him.

Tragedy of English
VI
Lunch Box

February 24. Dramatic Department gave three one-act plays that were mighty good.

March 5. Bought a date through our "Date Bureau" for the "Sadie Hawkins" Day" debate and informal dance—and did I get a bargain!

March 16. Can't speak a word. Can hardly find energy to write. Junior-Senior basket-ball game! The Juniors won, and EVERYBODY had fun.

March 19. Had to persuade myself not to stand up and cheer at "Anne of Green Gables", given by the Dramatic Department tonight.

March 22. Easter Vacation till the 27th!!

March 30. Mrs. Kelly's dancing pupils really "gave their all", and their recital tonight was certainly good.

April 6. WONDERFUL Annual Dance! Some figure—I mean the one given by the Annual Staff.

April 9. Now I know the height in musical entertainment. Dorothy Maynor gave a recital in Bristol tonight.

April 29. Proud Juniors, sad Seniors—perfect Junior-Senior Banquet!

May 3. Tonight was the fourth fine musical recital since April 12. Thelma Gilliam and Mary Jane Reynolds, Mary Stoots, Mary Ellen Steele, and Margaret Frost have given them. And Ann Settle "did herself proud" with her Dramatic one.

May 4. Even being on the Floor Committee couldn't dull the fun of the tea dance or our Spring Formal tonight.

May 15. Annual Banquet. ANNUALS!

May 18. Exams . . . . . .

May 23. Flaring torches, singing (and sobbing) High School and College Seniors. The Torch Light Service tonight was the most impressive thing I've ever seen.

May 24. May Day—with Mildred and her court in all their glory!

May 25. Many times three cheers for the graduation play tonight!

May 26. Words can't express my feelings at the Baccalaureate Service this morning at the Baptist Church.

May 27. Graduation!! Shakespeare and I say, "Parting is such sweet sorrow!"

BUNTING'S FOR DRUGS

Bunting's touches the life of Virginia Intermont as closely as any business in Bristol. It is a great satisfaction to us to know that our pharmaceutical department has cooperated with the college infirmary for many years in protecting the health of V. I. students. All of your films from the bookstore are finished in our photographic department. And our soda fountain and toilet department have always catered to Bristol students. We appreciate your patronage.

A CAMP THAT'S REALLY DIFFERENT

V. I. Ranch Camp is quite different from other Eastern camps. It is an exclusive Western-type ranch camp for girls from six up, located on one of the few remaining large ranches (1,000 acres) in the East. Here in the high (2,000 feet) Appalachian Mountains near where Virginia, Tennessee, and North Carolina meet, V. I. Ranch Camp is located.

The enrollment is strictly limited to seventy-five carefully chosen girls. These have extraordinary training, excellent food, outstanding equipment, and individualized instruction by a staff of college experts. All the advantages of "a summer in the Rockies" without going West may be found right here in the cool Southern Appalachians.

There are three groups: Midgets, 6 to 10; Juniors, 11 to 14; and Seniors, over 14. Each group has interests, instruction, and activities particularly suited to its age and requirements. Because of strictly limited enrollment, early application is advisable.
